SHOGUN WARRIORS 2018 YEAR IN REVIEW

Brig. Gen. Case Cunningham wishes Team Kadena happy holidays

Brig. Gen. Case Cunningham
18th Wing Commander

With 2018 rapidly coming to a close, I would like to thank each and every member of Team Kadena for your dedication and commitment to your critical missions. The work you all do every single day helps strengthen our long-standing alliance with Japan and ensures the safety, security and prosperity of a free and open Indo-Pacific. I'm so grateful for all of our Team Kadena spouses and family members. The endless dedication, love, support and understanding you provide your service members makes such a difference in our missions.

As we celebrate this holiday season, please take the time to enjoy being with family and friends and all that Japan and the region has to offer. I recognize that the nature and importance of some of your missions will provide no decrease in operational tempo as we near the holidays. Many families are also likely to have loved ones deployed across the globe. I owe a special thanks to you for your service and sacrifice during this time of year.

I'd ask you all to remember that though the holidays are a time of joy and celebration for many, they can be difficult for some, especially for those feeling isolated, sadness, stress, anxiety or a general lack of fulfillment or connection. We are all part of the Team Kadena family and I'm counting on active leadership and peer engagement across our organizations to ensure our service members and families are well cared for at all times, but especially during the holidays. If you're feeling down, please reach out for help. There are so many who are here for you in so many ways.

You have all accomplished so much this year. I am extremely thankful for each and every one of you and I am honored and proud to serve with you here on Okinawa. From my family to yours – Happy Holidays and all the best for 2019!

Exercise enhances trust, cooperation between U.S., Indian air forces

By Pacific Air Forces Public Affairs

12/17/2018 - KALAIKUNDA AIR FORCE STATION, India — Airmen from the U.S. and Indian air forces marked the successful completion of 12 days of bilateral training and increased mutual cooperation during the Cope India 19 (CI19) closing ceremony here Dec. 14.

A long-standing bilateral U.S. Pacific Air Forces (PACAF)-sponsored Field Training Exercise conducted with the Indian Air Force (IAF), Cope India focused on enhancing mutual cooperation and building on existing capabilities, aircrew tactics and force employment. This year's event ran from Dec. 3-14 and marked the fourth iteration of the exercise, with previous events in 2004, 2008 and 2009.

"We appreciate the opportunity to work alongside nations that support a free and open Indo-Pacific," said U.S. Air Force Gen. CQ Brown, Jr., PACAF commander, during the ceremony. "As a committed partner enhancing peace, prosperity and security across the region, we are grateful for India's support and the growing trust between our two nations."

Cope India initially began as a fighter training exercise held at Gwalior Indian Air Force Range with the goal of increasing combat capability and improving warfighter compatibility between the U.S. and Indian air forces. The exercise has evolved to incorporate subject matter expert exchanges on a wide range of specialties, air mobility training, air drop training and large-force exercises, in addition to fighter-training exercises.

"Cope India exceeded U.S. and IAF expectations. We learned from each other regarding operations, maintenance, logistics, crisis response, and many other capabilities that we can share with each other," said U.S. Air Force Col. Darryl Insley, commander of the 13th Air Expeditionary Group-CI19. "More importantly, we built lasting friendships and relationships that will endure for years to come."

"This is not an 'us' versus them scenario, we flew mixed formations and attempted to learn from each other's best practices," said Air Commodore Saji Anthony, IAF air officer commanding of Kalaikunda Air Force Station, adding that continued exercises enable the two nations to better "operate together in times to come."

New to this year's event included observers from the Japan Air Self Defense Force, as well as the exercises' expansion to two locations, Kalaikunda and Panagarh, both located in the eastern part of West Bengal state. Operating out of Kalaikunda has historical significance for the bilateral relationship as it served as one of four U.S. B-29 bomber bases during World War II.

Brown remarked the base's involvement was "indicative of the long history between our two nations and the opportunity to enhance it further moving forward."

"Cope India is just one part of an ongoing effort to strengthen the relationship between the U.S. Air Force and the Indian Air Force," Brown said. "These exercise scenarios challenged us to be agile in execution, innovative in our approach and integrated in our command and control... enhancing the readiness and lethality of our Airmen and our allies and partners."

Brown attended the exercise as part of a four-day visit to the country. In addition to attending the ceremony, the general visited with U.S. and Indian airmen and participated in an orientation flight in an IAF Mirage 2000, one of four different types of fighters flying in the exercise.

Total participation included more than 200 U.S. Airmen, F-15s from the 18th Wing, Kadena Air Base, Japan, and C-130Js from 182nd Airlift Wing, Illinois Air National Guard, alongside IAF airmen operating Sukhoi 30s, Jaguars, Mirage 2000s, C-130Js, as well as Airborne Early Warning and Control System and refueling aircraft.

Air Chief Marshal BS Dhanoa, IAF chief of staff, met with participating airmen earlier in the exercise and emphasized the importance of creating an environment of camaraderie and an opportunity to learn from each other's best practices in enhancing operational synergy.

Air Force base of preference initiative evolves to permanent program

By Kat Bailey

Air Force's Personnel Center Public Affairs
12/17/2018 - JOINT BASE SAN ANTONIO-RANDOLPH, Texas — The Base of Preference enhanced assignment initiative begins Jan. 9, 2019, and provides enlisted Airmen who have 48 months' time on station as of May 2019 the opportunity to apply for available Permanent Change of Station assignments in the Continental United States, or CONUS, through an immediate, straightforward and transparent process.

This is the latest evolution of the Base of Preference program run by the Air Force's Personnel Center and now includes eligible Career Airmen in ALL Air Force Specialty Codes assigned to CONUS locations.

"This final step in the initiative normalizes the process we began in April, simplifying the BOP application so Airmen and commanders can make professional development and career decisions by aligning preferences with available requirements," said Ron Gallucci, AFPC Assignments Programs and Procedures program manager.

In April, AFPC launched an initiative designed to improve how it delivers BOP program information to Airmen, increasing the visibility of available locations. The initial phase included seven AFSCs: Logistics Plans (2G0X1), Materiel Management (2S0X1), RF Transmission Systems (3D1X3), Administration (3F5X1), Health Services Management (4A0X1), Contracting (6C0X1) and Financial Management and Comptroller (6F0X1).

In July, AFPC added Pharmacy (4P0X1), Personnel (3F0X1) and Tactical Air Control Party (1C4X1).

"Starting in January, AFPC will post the available CONUS locations where Air Force requirements exist—by skill level and Air Force Specialty Code—on the Assignment Management System, similar to the Overseas and Overseas Returnee/CONUS Mandatory Mover assignment cycles," Gallucci said.

He advises Airmen with pending BOP applications to update their assignment preferences based on the posted available requirements. If an AFSC is not listed, Gallucci said no available requirement in that AFSC exists that quarter.

AFPC will send targeted messages directly to eligible Airmen assigned to CONUS locations, which will include cutoff dates and links to submit their applications.

"This evolution provides transparency to commanders and Airmen alike," Gallucci said. "It's important that AFPC remains agile, innovative, and responsive to Airmen's needs and Air Force requirements."

These programmatic changes do not include nor affect in-place or retraining BOP applications, nor will they impact Battlefield Airmen, Enlisted Aircrew or the Security Forces (3P) Breadth of Experience Initiative.

NOTICES

DBIDS 5.0 - Unescorted passes and contractor badge reissue

A scheduled upgrade to the installation access system has completed and DBIDS 5.0 is now live at Kadena Air Base. For all personnel possessing a DEERS linked form of identification (e.g. Common Access Card) there is no action required; DBIDS will automatically create a database profile the first time your identification is scanned by a hand-held device upon entry to the installation. All previously issued unescorted passes and USFJ 98EJ contractor badges will require registration and reissue of a new secure DBIDS 5.0 hard-card form of identification. To facilitate a smooth transition, these unescorted passes and USFJ 98EJ contractor badges will remain valid for a 90 day period while the Gate 1 Visitor Center conducts the registration and reissue process. All personnel that need reissue are encouraged to visit the Gate 1 Visitor Center at their earliest convenience. On 31 Dec., 2018, the installation will no longer accept unescorted passes and USFJ 98EJ contractor badges, and personnel still possessing these passes will be denied access and directed to the Gate 1 Visitor Center for registration and reissue.

TRICARE Prime and TRICARE Select plan information for calendar year 2018

The following changes or improvements to your TRICARE benefits apply for calendar year 2018: TRICARE Select will replace TRICARE Standard and TRICARE Extra on 1 Jan., 2018. TRICARE Select brings together the features of TRICARE Standard and TRICARE Extra in a single plan. Enrollees who obtain services from TRICARE network providers will pay lower cost sharing amounts for network care. All current TRICARE beneficiaries will be automatically enrolled in their respective plan on 1 Jan., 2018. TRICARE Prime plan enrollees will remain in their TRICARE Prime plan. TRICARE Standard and Extra beneficiaries will be enrolled in a TRICARE Select plan. Beneficiaries can choose to enroll in or change their TRICARE Prime or TRICARE Select coverage during an annual open enrollment period in November-December, 2018 for coverage beginning on 1 Jan., 2019. For calendar year 2019, failure to enroll in TRICARE Prime or TRICARE Select results in the termination of coverage for civilian care. These beneficiaries who choose to not enroll may only receive care at a military clinic or hospital on a space available basis. However, some exceptions still apply for more information contact TRICARE at 630-4310 Mon. - Fri. 7:30 a.m. - 4:30 p.m.

How to File a Complaint with IG

If you believe you are unable to resolve your complaint through supervisory channels, you may seek IG assistance to determine if the complaint should be filed with the IG. You can file a complaint if you reasonably believe inappropriate conduct has occurred or a violation of law, policy, procedures, or regulation has been committed. Complete the personnel data information on an AF Form 102 and briefly outline the facts and relevant information related to the issue or complaint. List the allegations of wrongdoing briefly, in general terms and provide supporting narrative detail and documents later, when interviewed by an IG person. Allegations should be written as bullets and should answer who committed the violation; what violation was committed; what law, regulation, procedures, or policy was violated; when did the violation occur. Help is available: Call your Kadena IG office at 634-7622 for Maj. Sarabia or 634-1109 for SMSgt. Southern, or leave a message on the Kadena Fraud Waste & Abuse (FWA) Hotline at 634-0404.

18th Wing Equal Opportunity

Do you face concerns of unlawful discrimination or sexual harassment? If so, Kadena Air Base leadership maintains a strict "zero-tolerance" policy pertaining to discriminatory behavior. If you feel you are being unlawfully discriminated against, to include sexual harassment, take action. We encourage members to use the chain of command first to resolve issues at the lowest level. However, you can also contact the EO office at 634-2571 to set up an appointment; or you may visit our office. Please note that the EO office will not accept a Formal Complaint more than 60 calendar days for military and 45 calendar days for civilian complaints after the alleged offense occurred without sufficient justification.
