MDG experiences dose of Payne

By Senior Airman Jonathan Valdes Montijo

673d Air Base Wing Public Affairs
7/11/2019 - JOINT BASE ELMENDORF-RICHARDSON, Alaska — U.S. Air Force Maj. Gen. Lee E. Payne, the Defense Health Agency Assistant Director for Combat Support, and Military Health System Electronic Health Record Functional Champion, visited Joint Base Elmendorf-Richardson, Alaska, July 9.

Payne highlighted the new electronic health record MHS Genesis and what some of the changes associated with it will be.

According to www.health.mil, one of the missions of the MHS is to ensure America's 1.4 million active duty and 331,000 reserve-component personnel are healthy so they can complete their national security mission.

Some of the benefits include:

- Faster and better management of chronic, complex, and time-sensitive conditions
- Automated, real-time clinical decision support for doctors and care providers
- Increased patient engagement capabilities that allow patients to directly communicate with their providers
- Lower overall maintenance costs for legacy systems
- Full compliance with the Department of Defense's cybersecurity requirements

As the functional champion, Payne mentioned he is the community's link to the new program's office and Defense Health Agency.

"I have listened to all of you about quality, safety and the problems the record system has," said Payne. "We have a team at the DHA that manages the record on a day-to-day basis, and is working every day to improve the interface with providers and patients."

The new electronic health record, MHS Genesis, integrates all aspects of care and is integral in provision and coordination of safe, quality care. It connects medical and dental information across the continuum of care, whether on the battlefield or at home in the military hospital.

In addition, it empowers the military health enterprise, enabling the MHS to be a high-reliability organization. With the deployment of MHS Genesis, many changes will be experienced by the provider and beneficiary audiences, as the MHS becomes a more integrated system of health and readiness.

Payne emphasized MHS Genesis, which is scheduled to roll out September 2020, will have its challenges.

"We are here to tell you about the beginnings and complexities of this journey, what we need to do collectively, and what you all need to do specifically," Payne said. "We all need to pay attention to this process in order to be as successful as possible."

He also expressed his desires and expectations for MHS Genesis, and encouraged everyone to approach it with a positive attitude.

"My intent is to make you excited about MHS Genesis," said Payne. "I think it's going to bring us more capabilities, deliver safer health care, and push us into the future with our partnership with Veterans Affairs. Get excited about this, help your people get excited about it, and let's make this as successful as possible."

Okinawa Vendor Showcase

In conjunction with the American Consulate General Naha, 18th Contracting Squadron is hosting the Okinawa-First Vendor Showcase July 12, at Kadena Air Base. The purpose of the "Okinawa First" Vendor Showcase is to introduce the U.S. military-affiliated purchasing agents on Okinawa to the local business community, giving an opportunity to local companies showcase the types of goods and services they offer. By providing a "one-stop shop," the event also allows companies to identify which offices might be potential customers and begin to learn about how to reach out to these organizations.

DoD delays Post 9/11 GI Bill changes

By Staff Sgt. Courtney Dotson-Essett

434th Aerial Refueling Wing Public Affairs
7/11/2019 - GRISSOM AIR RESERVE BASE, Ind. — The Department of Defense delayed the implementation of a policy that would limit a service member's ability to share education benefits with family members.

The policy, originally slated to take effect July 12, will discontinue the transfer benefit for members with 16 years or more of service.

The implementation has been delayed until January 12, 2020, giving long-serving members more time to transfer their education benefits to spouses or dependents.

Currently, members who serve a minimum of six years and commit to serving another four years can transfer their education benefits to dependents.

Those who agree to four additional years but who are unable to complete them because of a service-connected injury, medical discharge or receive a waiver can also keep their transfer benefits.

If a service member has more than 16 years of service after January 12, 2020, he or she will not be able to transfer GI bill benefits.

Purple Heart recipients will be able to transfer any unused benefits regardless of years of service.

"This extension will be significant for our Airmen, or any service member, with longer careers," said Senior Master Sgt. Adam Oswald, 434th Air Refueling Wing training technician. "It gives them more time to make an informed decision or start the transfer process."

Lt. Col. Nicholas D. Waldron, the commanding officer of Marine Wing Headquarters Squadron 1, and Sgt. Maj. Jeffery D. Durham, the sergeant major of MWHS-1, present a plaque to the Japan Coast Guard on Okinawa, July 10. Four Marines were swept away from shore by a strong ocean current while swimming at Mermaids Grotto, a popular Okinawan swimming spot. The Japan Coast Guard was notified of the incident and responded immediately. Three of the Marines were able to swim back to shore while one was rescued by the Japan Coast Guard. The Marines belonged to MWHS-1, 1st Marine Aircraft Wing. Waldron and Durham visited and presented a plaque to the Japan Coast Guard as a token of their appreciation for their swift and valiant response, resulting in saving a Marine's life.

COAST GUARD CUTTER, NAVY DESTROYER JOIN EXPEDITIONARY STRIKE GROUP 7

By Lt. Adagray Willis

Amphibious Squadron 11

7/12/2019 - TASMAN SEA — Legend-class U.S. Coast Guard Cutter Stratton (WMSL 752) and Arleigh Burke-class guided-missile destroyer USS McCampbell (DDG 85) joined the Wasp Expeditionary Strike Group (ESG) for exercise Talisman Sabre 2019.

Along with the Wasp-class amphibious assault ship USS Wasp (LHD 1), San Antonio-class amphibious transport dock USS Green Bay (LPD 20), Whidbey Island-class amphibious dock landing ship USS Ashland (LSD 48), Stratton and McCampbell will participate as members of the Wasp ESG through the end of July.

“Adding an Arleigh Burke DDG and Legend-class cutter to our strike group improves our lethality and makes us an even more capable fighting team,” said Rear Admiral Fred W. Kacher, commander, Expeditionary Strike Group 7. “Talisman Sabre allows us to sharpen our warfighting skills with some of our longest standing allies and great friends in the region. The diversity and versatility of the force we’ve amassed for this exercise gives us a unique opportunity to broaden our mutual understanding and strengthen our commitment to each other and the Indo-Pacific region.”

As one of the newest and most capable Legend-class ships, Stratton recently relieved USCGC Bertholf (WMSL 750) in the U.S. 7th Fleet area of operations to continue the U.S. Coast Guard’s presence abroad.

“As one of the five armed forces of the United States, the Coast Guard supports defense operations as part of the National Fleet and Joint Services,” said Capt. Ralph Little, commanding officer of the Bertholf. “Talisman Sabre 19 and the 2019 deployments of Stratton and Bertholf help ensure interoperability and economy of force in worldwide defense missions.”

Talisman Sabre 2019 will be the eighth iteration of the biennial exercise. With over 34,000 U.S. and Australian participants, the exercise will enable the partners to conduct operations in a combined, joint and interagency environment that will increase both countries’ ability to plan and execute contingency responses, from combat missions to humanitarian assistance efforts.

Wasp Expeditionary Strike Group, with embarked forces from 3rd Marine Division and 31st Marine Expeditionary Unit, is preparing to participate in Talisman Sabre 2019 off the coast of Northern Australia. A bilateral, biennial event, Talisman Sabre is designed to improve U.S. and Australian combat training, readiness and interoperability through realistic, relevant training necessary to maintain regional security, peace and stability.

U.S. Army Pacific Public Affairs Office
7/10/2019 - SHOALWATER BAY, QLD, Australia — The U.S. Armed Forces, along with the Australian Defence Force, New Zealand Defence Force and Japan Defence Force, conducted high mobility artillery rocket system training in Queensland, Australia, during Exercise Talisman Sabre 2019, July 8.

TS19 is a U.S. Indo-Pacific Command-sponsored exercise that trains USINDOPACOM and the ADF across hi-end, mid-intensity warfighting scenarios involving a Combined Task Force.

“It’s an opportunity to showcase a capability the U.S. is developing for the Pacific, which is a highly mobile rocket system,” said U.S. Marine Corps Col. Michael Roach, 12th Marines commanding officer. “More importantly, what I think we’ve gained is reinforcing interoperability and friendships between the U.S. and Australian alliance within the Pacific.”

TS19, which runs from late June to early August, is a bilateral military training exercise with more than 34,000 U.S. and Australian military personnel.

Roach said an exercise like this takes a great deal of planning. It happens every two years and is the culmination of American and Australian partners working together to train thousands of service members.

“I think the most important thing gained from exercises like Talisman Sabre is operating in a joint environment, having multiple systems, countries and services integrate and communicate with each other to achieve a unified goal,” Roach said.

The training demonstrated the insertion of aircraft and HIMARS belonging to the U.S. Army and Marine Corps under the command and control of the ADF.

HIMARS from both III Marine Expeditionary Force and 2nd Infantry Division, Division Artillery, with an element from the 17th Fires Brigade demonstrated the flexibility and lethality of the joint-force during TS19. U.S. Marine Corps KC-130J and U.S. Air Force C-130s carried U.S. Army and Marine Corps HIMARS to execute a realistic mission.

This aerial insertion artillery raid gave commanders the ability to rapidly deploy and extend range precision strike capability to shape the battle space and engage high-value targets.

“It’s not all the time that we actually get to do these things, but the fact that we’re out here getting to shoot these rockets, having a good time with everyone else, is something that we are taking to heart and honoring,” said U.S. Marine Corps LCpl. Brice Bowles, 5th Battalion, 11th Marines M142 HIMARS motor vehicle operator.

Exercises like TS19 provide realistic, relevant training necessary to maintain and strengthen regional security, peace and stability. TS19 also provides effective and intense training to ensure U.S. Forces are combat ready, capable, interoperable, and deployable on short notice.

Marine Corps Installations Pacific
 7/14/2019 - MARINE CORPS AIR STATION FUTENMA — Marine Corps Air Station (MCAS) Futenma hosted the 2019 Okinawa Futenma Bike Race for the local and military community July 14 on MCAS Futenma, Okinawa.

The starting line was crowded with cyclists on edge and eager to hear the crack of a starting pistol. The blank round was fired, the timer started, and the cyclists took off. Friends and families cheered on their loved ones as they departed from the start line to negotiate their way through Futenma's runways.

175 participants; a mix of Status of Forces Agreement personnel and Okinawan community members participated in the 2019 Futenma bike race.

Participants competing on road bikes took a 44 kilometer route, whereas participants on mountain bikes took on a 22 kilometer route.

The airfield was closed for a 24-hour period to allow competitors to test the runways surface. Marine Corps aviation technologies were displayed for all participants to enjoy as they continued throughout the race's route.

Every rider that made their way past the finish line was greeted with applause and cheers from the audience that awaited their finish.

"I think this a great opportunity to host people aboard the air station to get people out and exercise," said Col. David Steele, dedicated tri-athlete, commanding officer of MCAS Futenma, and competitor in the race. "Friendship through sport is a big part of what Marine Corps Community Services and Futenma wants to do"

The event was hosted by Marine Corps Community Services, a comprehensive set of programs that support and enhance the operational readiness, war fighting capabilities, and life quality of Marines, their families, retirees and civilians.

SMDC's 2019 regional Best Warriors descend on Colorado Springs to compete for top honors

By Carrie Campbell

U.S. Army Space and Missile Defense Command/Army Forces Strategic Command 7/15/2019 - PETERSON AIR FORCE BASE, Colorado — Eight of the U.S. Army Space and Missile Defense Command/Army Forces Strategic Command's top warriors faced off this week to determine who would be the command's 2019 Best Warriors.

The command's regional winners descended on Peterson Air Force Base and Fort Carson to compete in a variety of Soldier skills for the command's Best Warrior Competition, July 8-12.

"These Soldiers are the future. They really gave their all," said Command Sgt. Maj. Finis A. Dodson, USASMDC/ARSTRAT's command sergeant major. "I'm proud of each and every one of them. And on behalf of SMDC, you should be proud of them. Because these are our Soldiers. They represent us. These are your Soldiers."

Facing off were four noncommissioned officers and four Soldiers: Sgt. Roberto Arazia and Spc. Zachary Petersen, Company A, 53rd Signal Battalion, 1st Space Brigade, Fort Detrick, Maryland, Eastern Region; Sgt. Chayse Burns, Headquarters and Headquarters Company, 53rd Signal Battalion, 1st Space Brigade, Fort Carson, Colorado, and Spc. Adam Lamont, Headquarters and Headquarters Company, 1st Space Brigade, Fort Carson, Western Region; Spc. Brandon Eastman, Company E, 53rd Signal Battalion, 1st Space Brigade, Okinawa, Japan, and Spc. Jared Geurts, Company D, 53rd Signal Battalion, 1st Space Brigade, Wahiawa, Hawaii, Pacific Region; and Sgt. Kyle Swartz, Joint Tactical Ground Station-European Command, Siganelia, Italy, and Spc. Tanner Anderson, Company C, 53rd Signal Battalion, Landstuhl, Germany, European Region.

"Everyone did a great job. There are no losers in this event. They are all winners," Dodson said. "Keep pushing everybody else, and keep pushing each other. This is what the Army is about."

The winners were announced during a ceremony July 12 at the command's operational headquarters on Peterson Air Force Base. The NCO Best Warrior is Burns and the Soldier Best Warrior is Anderson.

The competition consisted of the Army Physical Fitness Test, day and night land navigation, Army Warrior Tasks and Battle Drills, 12-mile ruck march, combatives, obstacle course, weapons qualification, written common Soldier knowledge examination, written essay, Equal Opportunity event, TC3 medical lanes, SHARP test, M249 event, media event, and an appearance in front of a board consisting of command sergeants major from across the command.

Anderson said it felt great to win. "It was a tough competition out there; it was a great competition," Anderson said. "A lot of really good guys out there. I'm glad I was able to come out on top."

Burns agreed saying it had been a hard week.

"I feel excellent. I feel like all of us put our best foot forward," Burns said. "Somebody had to come out on top, and I'm happy that it was me."

He said combatives was his favorite event.

"I like getting in there. Rolling and fighting is a pretty fun thing for me," Burns said. "None of the events were really super terrible, but the ruck was definitely challenging. The competition was great, and I loved it."

Anderson said the ruck was his favorite event.

"My favorite event, because it was the toughest, was definitely the ruck for me just because it was the most taxing on my body," Anderson said. "I had fun with it because I was chasing the guys in front of me. It was a good time."

Burns and Anderson will represent the command in the U.S. Army Forces Command Best Warrior Competition Aug. 17-22 at Fort Bragg, North Carolina. In the event that either competitor is unable to compete, the runners up, Swartz or Geurts, will compete at the next level, said Dodson.

"One NCO and one Soldier are going to represent SMDC at FORSCOM," Dodson said. "I want them to go up there and do great things and win."

Burns and Anderson both received Army Commendation Medals during the ceremony.

NOTICE

Tricare Corner: Overseas Enrollment

All newborn and adopted children must be registered in DEERS within 120 days. To do this, the sponsor must go to a uniform services ID card office and present the child's birth certificate, certificate of live birth from the hospital, record of adoption, or letter of placement of your child into your home by a recognized placement, adoption agency or the court. Once they are registered in DEERS, your child will be automatically enrolled in TOP Select. You will need to change or transfer your newborn's enrollment to TOP Prime (if command sponsored) within 120 days of birth or adoption. If you do not enroll within the 120-day period, your child will remain in TOP Select. If your child is registered in DEERS after the allotted time period, they will only be able to receive care on a space available basis at a military hospital or clinic, and a PCM will not be assigned to your child. The sponsor can only enroll the child in an eligible TRICARE plan if they have a Qualifying Life Event or during the annual TRICARE Open Season. For more information, visit www.tricare.mil/overseas or visit your local TRICARE office.

Partial Road Closure

Partial road on Douglas Blvd. (near Christos Ave. to near Bldg. 852) will be closed from June 3, 2019 to Jan 31, 2020, 24 hours daily. One lane in each direction will be open for traffic. For more information, contact Mr. Akira Fair at 634-4879.

POV Shipment Authorize

Effective immediately, Air Force members are authorized to ship a Privately Owned Vehicle on subsequent Permanent Change of Station orders from Okinawa/Japan when a member does not use the storage entitlement under JTR, para 0532. These members in this category can ship a car from Okinawa to their next Permanent Duty of Station, on a case by case basis. *Federal, state, local, and/or international requirements and cost therein fall entirely on the member.* Members must still visit TMO PPSO well in advance to coordinate this request, to ensure they are fully briefed on the entire process. For more information, contact TMO Personal Property at 632-0068.

AFSA Chapter 1553 Unit Membership Competition

The Air Force Sergeant's Association (AFSA) Chapter 1553 is holding a membership drive/competition from July 1 to September 30 with regular meetings scheduled during this period. Up to $500 is up for grabs to the unit(s) who most improves its membership. For more information, contact Donald Fisher at 632-5085.

INFORMATION

Kadena and Camp Foster Emergency Numbers

Kadena Fire Emergency Services reminds everyone to program their cell phones with the emergency numbers. To report an emergency on Kadena via cell, dial 098-934-5911, and from an office phone, dial 911. For Camp Foster via cell, dial 098-911-1911, or from an office phone, dial 911.

Think Before You Drink

Did you know there have 15 SOFA members caught drinking and driving in 2019. Don't become a statistic. Think before you drink. Don't drive - call a ride. For a safe ride home call these numbers: Kadena Taxi at 098-970-8888(option 8) / Panda Taxi (off base) 098-937-8989. / Daiko 098-932-4035.

AADD: We Get You Home Safe

Did you drink tonight? Made a plan but it's falling through? Can't catch a cab? If any of this applies to you, call AADD. Don't risk it all, when you can get a ride home for free. To contact AADD from a cell phone number, dial 098-961-1110 and ask for the USO, or dial DSN: 634-3889. We're open Fridays and Saturdays at the USO (gate 2) from 2200 to 0100 and we're here to help. If you have any questions and/or concerns, please email our Org Box or contact us on Facebook: Kadena AB A2D2

How to File a Complaint with IG

If you believe you are unable to resolve your complaint through supervisory channels, you may seek IG assistance to determine if the complaint should be filed with the IG. You can file a complaint if you reasonably believe inappropriate conduct has occurred or a violation of law, policy, procedures, or regulation has been committed. Complete the personnel data information on an AF Form 102 and briefly outline the facts and relevant information related to the issue or complaint. List the allegations of wrongdoing briefly, in general terms and provide supporting narrative detail and documents later, when interviewed by an IG person. Allegations should be written as bullets and should answer who committed the violation; what violation was committed; what law, regulation, procedures, or policy was violated; when did the violation occur. Help is available: Call your Kadena IG office at 634-7622 for Maj Sarabia, 634-2768 for SMSgt Aguirre, or leave a message on the Kadena Fraud, Waste, & Abuse (FWA) Hotline at 634-0404.

18th Wing Equal Opportunity

Do you face concerns of unlawful discrimination or sexual harassment? If so, Kadena AB leadership maintains a strict "zero-tolerance" policy pertaining to discriminatory behavior. If you feel you are being unlawfully discriminated against, to include sexual harassment, take action.

We encourage members to use the chain of command first to resolve issues at the lowest level. However, you can also contact the EO office at 634-2571 to set up an appointment; or you may visit our office. Please note that the EO office will not accept a formal complaint more than 60 calendar days for military and 45 calendar days for civilian complaints after the alleged offense occurred without sufficient justification.

Safety Message Regarding Divers and UXOs

With peak diving season around the corner, it is imperative that divers are aware of the potential hazards of tampering with or recovering unexploded ordnance (UXO) within the waters of Okinawa, Japan. If any ordnance items are found in the waters, recreational divers should not relocate, recover, or touch said items. Individuals who recover these items risk potential harm to themselves or others in the area. Furthermore, transporting UXOs through residential areas and on/off installations risk the potential of creating an international incident if involved in either an accident or when stopped by local police.
